Former Mickey Thompson President, Dominick Montouri, Joins Tire Group International as Chief Strategy Officer.

[Miami, FL] — Tire Group International (TGI), a leading distributor in the global tire distribution industry, is pleased to announce the addition of Dominick Montouri as Chief Strategy Officer, focusing on their Cosmo Tires brand. Montouri brings a wealth of experience and expertise, having spent the last 6 years as President of Mickey Thompson Tires and Wheels. In his new role, Montouri will be responsible for leading strategic growth initiatives focused on the Cosmo brand, fostering key partnerships, and enhancing TGI's global market presence. His vast knowledge of the tire industry and his proven track record of driving innovation and growth make him a valuable addition to the TGI family.

"I am excited to join the TGI family and continue to drive their strategic growth initiatives," said Dominick Montouri. "TGI's commitment to excellence, innovation, customer satisfaction, as well as its family first culture, aligns perfectly with my professional values and aspirations. I am eager to contribute to the company's continued success and growth."

The addition of Montouri at Tire Group International, comes at an opportune time for the company, as it continues to expand the Cosmo brand and product portfolio. His strategic vision and leadership will play a crucial role in advancing TGI's position as a global leader in the tire distribution industry.

"We are delighted to have Dominick join our team," said Tony Gonzalez, CEO of Tire Group International. "His impressive industry knowledge and leadership skills make him the perfect fit for TGI as we continue to evolve and expand our Cosmo footprint in the global tire market. We look forward to achieving new milestones together."
